PUBLIC AUCTION SALE OF THAT SPACIOUS, CENTRALLY LOCATED, SUBSTANTIAL AND VALUABLE CORNER PROPERTY

No. 100 West Clay Street

50 8-12x137 FEET, NORTH-WEST CORNER CLAY AND ADAMS, ST. PAUL'S CHURCH HOME FOR AGED WOMEN.

By direction of the trustees of St. Paul's Church Home for Aged Women, we shall sell, by public auction, on the premises, on the above named, large and valuable property, now and long occupied as the St. Paul's Church Home for Aged Ladies, three big rooms and large double porch, fronting 50 feet on north side Clay Street, corner Adams Street, and the building being a most substantial, detached, two-story and basement brick structure, containing about fourteen rooms, well appointed, having city water, gas, elegant marble and slate mantels, slate roof, and which can be made at small cost very attractive, it being well adapted in size, character and location for a large residence, or a public institution, or the valuable material therein might be utilized to advantage in building on this spacious and attractive corner lot, there is also upon the lot a good brick outbuilding.

TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1908, AT 6 O'CLOCK P. M.

TERMS: Liberal and announced at sale.

J. B. ELAM & CO., Auctioneers.

By E. A. Catlin, No. 6 North Eleventh Street.

In execution of a deed of trust to me dated April 11, 1908, and recorded in clerk's office, Richmond Chancery Court, in D. B. 177 B. p. 344, default having been made in the payment of a note there secured, and being required so to do by the holder of said note, I will on at 6:30 o'clock P. M., on the premises, sell the two tenement dwellings, Nos. 313 and 315 North Twenty-second Street, between Broad and Marshall Streets. The lot is described as commencing at a public alley, thence running southerly along the east line of Twenty-second Street, 39 feet to the center of common alley, 3 feet wide, more or less, which alley is for the common use of the premises on its two sides.

TUESDAY, JULY 14, 1908,

On account of its central location this property is an unusually good money earner.

TERMS: Cash sufficient to pay the cost of executing the trust, taxes due, if any, and to pay off a note of $700 and interest thereon from April 11, 1905, and the balance at two years, or all cash, at option of purchaser.

E. A. CATLIN, Trustee.
